Mayor refused the same He allegeth that these garners and bakehouses were built solely for the use of the poor in times of scarcity who would be utterly disappointed if they should be employed for any other use. At the same time he hath petitioned the Lord Treasurer that the corn for the fleet may be bought from Kent or other shires and not in the City Sir Francis and Sir John purpose to make their provision out of the wheat brought from foreign parts for the benefit of the City, and hare already bought some, enforcing the same to a lower price than is usual or can be well afforded , hereby the merchants shall be discouraged from bringing in any more

November PLAYS OF THE WEEK

At the Rose Theatre this past week The French Doctor, Doctor Faustus$_y$ The Knack to Knozv an Honest Man, D^ocles^an$_9$ The Grecian Comedy

zjth November THE LADY BRIDGET MANNERS

The Queen hath caused the Lady Bridget Manners to be set free Mr Tyrwhitt was released some days since on the mediation of his friends and m respect of his sickness Her Majesty now bids the Lord Hunsdon to write to the Countess of Rutland in her name that she imputes the fault more to her than to the young couple, for though the Lady Bridget took the fault on herself to excuse her mother, yet the Queen is well assured that the Lady Bridget would never have married without her mother's consent There now remains only that the Countess should send for the Lady Bridget from the Countess of Bedford, and the sooner the better, and her husband will come down with her

%otb November PLAYS OF THE WEEK

The plays at the Rose this last week were Caesar and Pomfey, The Venetian Comedy ', Tamburlane, Warlamchester (twice), The Knack to Know an Honest Man

A CONFERENCE ABOUT THE SUPPRESSING OF ROGUES

Since the Council approve the measures proposed against vagrants the Lord Mayor hath summoned the Justices of Middlesex and Surrey to meet with him and with the Lord Chief Justices touching the orders to be put in execution for